

Financial Literacy Empowerment Camp 2019 (Ages: 11-18 years of age)

Financial literacy is the linking of savings, credit and debt management and the knowledge that are necessary to make financial responsible decisions that are integral to our everyday lives. Financial literacy includes understanding how a checking account works, what using credit card really means, and how to avoid debt. Consequently, financial literacy impacts the daily decisions an average family makes when trying to balance a budget, buy a home, fund their children's education and ensure an adequate income at retirement.
